Slip, Trip and Fall Prevention Training

Resources

Training employees during new hire orientation and periodically after is a fundamental component of an effective slip, trip and fall (STF) prevention program.

United Heartland has a team of experienced Loss Control representatives to assist customers with their safety training needs. We specialize in training management and supervisory staff in the fundamentals of STF prevention.

United Heartland also offers a variety of other training resources on the topic of slip, trip and fall prevention. These can be accessed through our vendor alliances with CLMI and Lezage, which can be found at UnitedHeartland.com.
